CAPABILITY STATEMENT

WHAT WE DO

Training Bulletin turns approved agency policy into concise, professional explainer videos your people will actually watch. We serve sheriff's offices, police departments, county HR teams, public works departments, and municipal agencies with real compliance obligations and limited production capacity. Your policy language stays the source of truth; every script moves through your review chain before release.

THE THREE-VIDEO POLICY TRAINING PILOT: $7,500 FIXED FEE

Scope

Three policy explainer videos
3 to 5 minutes each
One policy rollout or three topics

Process

Scope call, then storyboard approval
One revision round per video
Nothing publishes by surprise

Timeline

Final delivery within 30 days
of storyboard approval
Status updates throughout

DELIVERABLES

1080p MP4 video files · Closed captions (WebVTT) · Section 508-friendly · LMS/SCORM-ready
Each video includes a five-question knowledge check with answer key and a printable acknowledgment sheet, so your agency has documented proof of completion for auditors, counsel, and command staff. Files are built to fit the systems you already use: your LMS, intranet, briefing room, or roll-call training. No new platform, no per-seat licensing, no bloated LMS contract.

AFTER THE PILOT

Policies change; your training library should keep up. After a successful pilot, agencies commission update videos as directives are revised. Most budget for two to four update videos per year, without replacing their current learning system or paying for content they do not need.

EXPERIENCE

Built by a working California corrections and field supervisor, POST-certified and a Sherman Block SLI graduate. Two decades of sitting through the training it replaces: the nine-page directive, the 2014 PowerPoint, the acknowledgment form signed at 0630 and never read. Training Bulletin replaces it.
